

Halal Product Recall Plan (HPRP)

Facility: Corndogs By Mr. Cow

Location: Glendale, Queens, New York

Revision Date: 01/02/2026

1. Introduction

This Halal Product Recall Plan outlines the procedures to be followed in the event of an actual or potential halal or food safety concern involving products handled at the facility.

2. Objective

To promptly identify, isolate, and control any affected halal product in order to protect consumers and maintain the integrity of the Halal Product Facility (HPF).

3. Scope

This plan applies to all halal products and ingredients purchased, stored, prepared, and served at the facility.

4. Identifying a Recall Situation

- Potential issues may be identified through supplier notifications, internal review, or consumer complaints.
- Any concern related to halal status, contamination, or food safety is treated seriously and addressed immediately.

5. Initial Response

- Upon identification of a potential issue, the affected product is immediately removed from use and isolated.
- No further preparation or sale of the affected product is permitted.

6. Recall Responsibility

- The Owner/Management is solely responsible for managing the recall process.
- Due to the size of the operation, no formal recall team is required.

7. Communication

- The supplier (e.g., Restaurant Depot) is contacted if clarification or instructions are required.
- The halal certification body and/or relevant food safety authority will be notified if necessary.

8. Product Control & Disposal

- Affected products are either returned to the supplier or disposed of according to supplier or regulatory guidance.
- Products are not reintroduced into service unless confirmed safe and halal-compliant.

9. Documentation

- Recall actions, including product details, dates, and corrective actions taken, are documented in internal records.
- Records are retained for review purposes.

10. Review & Preventive Action

- Management reviews the incident to determine root cause.
- Corrective measures are implemented to prevent recurrence.

11. Approval

This Halal Product Recall Plan has been approved by Owner/Management of Hattrick Foods LLC.
