

Supplier

Log and Store

Preparation

Cooking

Customer

---

Explanation:

Supplier: Halal products are received from the supplier.

Log and Store: Products are logged with detailed information (product identifiers, supplier details, date received, etc.) and stored in designated halal storage areas.

Preparation: Products move to the preparation area, where they undergo any necessary processing or prepping.

Cooking: Prepped products are cooked according to halal standards.

Customer: The final cooked products are delivered to the customer.