

Sultan Restaurant - Recall plan

- We at the restaurant minimize the risk of cross contamination between halal food and grocery because we do our own delivery and purchasing using our designated business car.
- We keep all the receipts and tags for the halal products to comfort any request by our customer.
- In case we purchase a non-halal item, we will find out during storage of the item and it will be returned before it reaches the fridge or preparation area.