To whom it may concern,

This letter is to confirm that the products manufactured at our facility are Halal compliant based on the ingredient review, formulation, and manufacturing controls used during production.

The products manufactured at our facility do not contain pork, pork-derived ingredients, alcohol, or intentionally added non-Halal animal-derived ingredients. All raw materials, including ingredients and enzymes, are reviewed prior to use to verify suitability for Halal production.

The product specifications may list the use of enzymes. Based on supplier documentation and our ingredient review, the enzymes used in these products are not animal-derived and are suitable for use in Halal-compliant products. No pork-derived or non-Halal animal-derived enzymes are intentionally used in the manufacturing of these bread products. Our facility follows Good Manufacturing Practices, including ingredient verification, sanitation controls, and proper storage of ingredients. Food-contact surfaces and production equipment are cleaned and maintained in sanitary condition prior to production.

Based on our review of the raw materials, enzyme source documentation, formulation, and production process, the products manufactured at this facility are suitable for Halal consumers and are considered Halal compliant.

Thank you,
